

Reading Analysis Guide

What did you learn from the readings for today? Summarize 3-5 major claims from these readings and explain your rationale for selecting each and the significance of each claim.

Develop two or three critical questions to stimulate critical analysis about the content and encourage connections to teaching/future careers.

Identify an idea in the readings for today that you either did not agree with or only partially agreed with, then explain your rationale.

What ideas did you learn about in today's readings that merit more investigation? Why do you want to learn more about this? Identify one resource where you could learn more about this idea.

Explain how/why the ideas in today's readings are important for teachers.