

Dr. Jessica Ferreras-Stone
ELED425: Social Studies for Elementary School
Western Washington University

Student Comments

“Assigning podcasts instead of readings—phenomenal.”

“I loved how engaged this course led me to be. I really enjoyed the podcasts.”

“The podcast were all very interesting and engaging.”

“Please keep doing podcasts without non-required physical readings. I loved this aspect of the class.”

“I really liked the podcasts- I’ve never had a class with podcasts and they were very interesting and great for discussions.”

“I really liked how we listened to podcasts instead of just reading because it gave multiple perspectives over one text book writer.”

“I really appreciated our class readings being in the form of podcasts—being able to listen rather than only read works best for my learning style.”